Hot Springs, Arkansas,
January 14, 1937.

MEMORANDUM FOR INSPECTOR P. J. CONNELLY

J. Frank.

There are attached hereunto the logs for January 12, 1937 covering the taps on telephones listed to the Chief of Police, City Jailor, and Mayor's Office, at located in the City Hall at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

Note that call at 1:42 P.M., where Day Captain Jerry Watkins politely tells a gambler that he is looking for another gambler. Last week a Matt Brown was arrested for being drunk and disturbing the peace, and it is very likely that the individual in instant conversation is identical with the said Matt Brown.

That call at 2:50 P.M., between "Dutch" Akers and Emmett Jackson, City Clerk, indicates that Akers apparently contemplates borrowing $600.00 from the City or from Jacks to pay for a new Buick automobile which is awaiting him delivery nexxt week at the Buick Agency.

That conversation between "Dutch" Akers and Chief Jakelin at 4:15 P.M. is very interesting. It should be noted that Grady Manning and a Little Rock crowd is expected to take over the gambling at the Kingsway Hotel. From previous conversations, it is our guess that Joe Schneider and Raymond Hayland of Little Rock, Arkansas will be associated with Manning in this venture. I recently submitted a memorandum setting forth the conversations between Mayor McLaughlin and a person at telehone #2115 and a conversation between the Mayor and Grady Manning.
It is now believed that those three conversations have reference to getting a sunction from W. S. Jacobs to operate gambling houses at the Kingsway. It has been determined that telephone #2115 is the unlisted number assigned to W. S. Jacobs.

Note that call at 6:22 P.M., between "Dutch" Akers and an unidentified man, apparently #3068 is unpublished as it does not appear in the local telephone directory. We have no idea what the conversation reflected in this call pertains to.

All these conversations over the Mayor's phone pertaining to the solution expected to be introduced providing for appropriation to conduct an investigation in Hot Springs are very important, and should be set out in a report.
The identity of Carroll Hollingsworth, Joe Schneider, Ed Kohnen, Jr., as should be determined and explained in the conversations of this date.

Respectfully submitted.

involved down here.

Harmon: What kind of a suit is it?

Actor: A pretty good one - it involves a death.

Harmon: Who are the people here?

Actor: The man is a man who works at the Arlington Hotel - he gets off at four.
Why don't you let me bring them up and talk with you - about 4:30 today?

Mrs. Webley: You can send one meat to go along with these greens I got (change)
Aber: I'm going to send $5.00 to that boy - do you think that will be enough?
Mrs. Webley: Yeah, I think so.
Aber: Still have to do for the present. I'll get a money order for it and send it to him.
I tried to write him, but they don't have a telegraph office there - guess the town is too small to have one.
Mrs. Webley: Bob Webley was up here after those wings - he was Ill last this month.
about being the power of attorney to get that stuff.

Abner: Did you give him those rings and jewelry?

Webber: No. I told him to see Venet (Ledgemood).

Abner: He's been after me to get those rings from you. I just kept telling him off, telling him you were sick. One of those rings belongs to Scotty Torr-ney, doesn't it?

Webber: Yeah. What's doing with them?

Abner: Everything is quiet. I talked with her this morning about getting a fingerprint classifier - she wants to work up that Branch. He said he wasn't going to put Lewis back on.

Webber: Did he say any thing about me?

Abner: No, he didn't. But he did indicate that he was going to let you ride on the train until you get well. It's my guess that he won't do any thing in your direction until the first of the month.
Habelin: So he's not going to take cent book?

Abner: No, he said he's through with him.

Habelin: I haven't seen Vena (Hedgecock) in two or three days, so I don't know much of what's going on.

Abner: I understand she moved back into the Cone Hotel.

Habelin: Who's the gambling at the Kingmay?

Abner: I understand they're going to open up there on the 16th. They all say the Southern Club, Citizens, + Millers.

Habelin: Who has it at the Kingmay?

Abner: Crady Manning and that crowd from Little Rock.

Habelin: Yeah?

Abner: I talked with Jake (H.S. Jacobs) the other day, and I understand him to say that they weren't going to have any gambling there (Kingmay) this year. But I heard today that they will be ready to open up on the 16th.
Vahle: What about that thing this fellow Nichols was going to introduce over in Little Rock — is that taken care of?

Wheadon: Yes, I don't think there will be anything to it. Say Joe, do you know what happened to one of those shot machines that were in that back room?

Vahle: No. I don't.

Wheadon: I think Llew took it and is going to put it up at the hotel (Kingsley). He's got nothing to do with those machines — I picked up the fellow with them. I'm going to get after Llew, and get that machine back.

Vahle: What else?

Wheadon: I've got an extra machine down there, and Nick Ryan is supposed to be handling it for the other side. We can't do anything with him — he's accused to death of Carl (Boyle).
Okay. Don't you know anybody around town that can classify fingerprints? I remember that old fellow had fingerprints on a white book, but I don't remember who they were now.

Watcher: No, I don't know anybody.

Okay. I talked with Tommy Wilson today about helping us out tomorrow, and he politely turned me down - said that none of them in the Government Service want to have anything to do with us on the City Police.

(Tommy Wilson is a member of the National Park Service Police)

Watcher: Well, I hope to be up and around in a couple of days.

Okay: I'll try and drop up to see you in the morning, if you can think of anybody qualified enough to run the Bureau down here, give me a says.

Watcher: All right, but I don't know anybody that could do that.

Man. - Hello.
Akers. - Did you see them?
Man. - I saw the boys, but I haven't seen the old man yet. That's something coming up in the morning. I don't know exactly how you stand yet.
Akers. - What'd the boys say?
Man. - They couldn't say for sure. Just said that the machinery had been put in motion, and that it would be Saturday or Monday before they'd show how you stand. I'll try to see the old man tomorrow.
Akers. - Well, thanks.

Mayor called Long Distance for Joe Schneider at Little Rock:
Mayor: I got word that things are not as encouraging over there. Heard that the fellow had assembled two or three more. And that they'll introduce that resolution tomorrow morning.
Schneider: Yeah, I understand they had a talk with him this morning. I haven't heard yet what they said. They tried to put it in this morning, and Bradstreet said he didn't want it.
Mayor: What do they think about it over there?
Schneider: Looks like you're between two forces, and they're pulling against each other. I got an idea what some one is trying to do - and so desire yours.
Mayor: Yeah, I know. What do you think we better do? - 9-
Schneider: You might come over here this afternoon, so I can talk with him and see what he's got to say.

Mayor: Yeah, you do that, and see what his reaction will be.

Schneider: All right, I'll get right after him.

3:00 P.M. Manning

Mayor called Larry Manning at the Mason Hotel in Little Rock.

Mayor: Sonny (Harris) and Wes (Ledge-wood) are here talking about this thing. I called Joe a while ago to contest him to get his reaction on that thing we were talking about. He hasn't as yet been able to get a hold of him.

Manning: All depends on the attitude of the boss about this.

Mayor: You mean Carl?
Manning: Yes.
Mayor: Well, that has a lot to do with it, I admit.
Manning: The information I got down here doesn't sound very good to me.
They held a conference in doctors' offices this morning, and from what little I could get there indirectly, it seems that -
Mayor: Have they adjourned down there yet?
Manning: Yes.
Mayor: Have you talked with John (Brannford) since they came in?
Manning: Yes; and he doesn't feel any too good about it. But we can Mayor: This thing may even get so far reaching that it will have something to do with the man that and appoint to make the mistake gettin' done here.

Mayor: Well, I may or may not.

Mama: Say Leo, in all due respects to John Campbell, I don't think that she has done all she could about this thing. He had that follower up in his room the other day, and I don't think he writes on them like he should have.

He's got the wrong about on this thing - has he the idea that this is going to argue it on the floor to keep it from being passed. Well, we can't afford to have that thing even introduced.

Mayor: I don't know what got into you.

Mayor: I don't know his first name, but he's from Logan County.
Holt: Do he a preacher?
Mayor: Yeah, that's the one.
Holt: Yes, I know him by sight.
Mayor: Well, he's armed with a resolution that was written down here by Scott Wood, asking for five fellow in the judicial circuit down
The whole damn thing is silly, and I understand that they now
Mayor: It's fellow named Thompson from Independence County with them, do you know him?

Holt: Yes.

Mayor: What sort of a fellow is he?

Holt: A preacher from down there.

Mayor: Can you give us any advice on this?

Holt: You know who this is coming from, don't you?

Mayor: I think so. Scott Hood wrote the thing.

Holt: No, I mean, higher than that.

Mayor: Well, our information is that he was now committed on it. They had a conference with him this morning, but he didn't encourage it, nor did he pour any cold water over it. (Probably talking about Ella Bailey, the Governor.)

Holt: You know, Nicholas has seen him before about this, and he has been in favor of it.
Mayor: Do there any thing you can do?
Holt: Well, I'm not particularly close to those fellows, but I have some friends over here with whom I can talk and spread the word around.

Mayor: John Brownford doesn't want it introduced either - he thinks the whole thing is absurd.

Holt: Well, it is absurd and silly.

Mayor: You know, they tried to introduce it before the flood this morning, but John wouldn't take it. I understand now, that they're going to try again tomorrow. They got a couple more brokers today.

Holt: Well, I'm not close enough to those fellows to talk them out of something, but I'll talk to some of my friends here, and get them to pour cold water on it.

Mayor: You'll have to work fast between now and tomorrow morning.

Holt: All right. I'll see what I can do.
3:25 P.M.  Calling Mr. Calloway, who had called Long Distance for T.M. and H. Nancy, Jr. at Little Rock.

The first part of their conversation pertained to the May 10th, 1939 meeting - nothing of importance to this issue.

Mayor: Have you fellows going to be in session tomorrow?

Mr. Nancy: Yes.

Mayor: Do you know this fellow trustee, and about the resolution he is to introduce providing for an appropriation of $500 to investigate the judicial circuit down here?

Mr. Nancy: Yes, I heard all about it today.

Mayor: What did he talk about it in there?

Mr. Nancy: Well, it looked like to me a fence. You talk with three fellows, and they pay you one for it. Then you talk with two or three more, and they can't see it.
Mr. Handy: A lot depends on what the boss thinks about it.

Mayor: I heard today that he really has no personal interest in it - and that he's neither encourag-ing it, nor pouring cold water on it.

Mr. Handy: I've heard - the first information I had is that he was going to sponsor a bill to provide author-ity for the State Troopers to slip into a town or county where the local police unit must form a team according to the law.

Mayor: Yeah, I know.

Mr. Handy: I don't if the thing will ever go through - in the first place, they'll blink their eyes when they hear the amount of the appropriation asked for.

Mayor: Do you think you can sell any thing about it between now and tomorrow morning? - 20 -
Mr. Honey: Well, I don't know if we can find it, but we can juggle
it around a bit.

Mayor: That'll be all right, because that will give us more time to get around.

Mr. Honey: Let me tell you what you can do? Tell your two boys down there not to run wild like they did last year. A lot of them rioted it, and naturally more against every thing they did and said.

Mayor: Jim (Langell) is not going to do that this year. I know what he did last year.

Mr. Honey: (Returned to matter of mayor's divorce suit)

Mayor: Well Ed, I'll try and be up to see you tomorrow.

Hazel — Hello.

McL. — Well, did you have a nice dinner?

Hazel — Yes, but I was worried about you. Started to call you up, but I knew you'd be busy calling people.

McL. — I'm glad you're worried because it shows you're interested. I was out to mother and just stopped by the office before going over to make that talk. Going to send your back up there tomorrow because he may be able to do some good.

Hazel — Yes, he may.

McL. — I've been talking to folks all over the state that got a lot of faces lined up.
Hazel - That's good.
Meet - Got some things working in Little Rock, too.
Hazel - Did you talk to Carroll?
Meet - Yes. He's doing what he can for me. Well, I'll call you later. Was just going to stop by the fire dept. and meet Ebel (report) there.
Hazel - All right. I hope everything comes out all right. I was worried about you.

(Note: Conversation apparently refers to activity to prevent the introduction of a bill in the House of Representatives aimed to cause an investigation of public officials and their affairs.)
MEMORANDUM FOR INSPECTOR F. J. O'NEILL

By/ Date:

There is attached hereto a conversation taken over the Mayor's phone which was inadvertently omitted from the logs sent in for January 7, 1937. This conversation undoubtedly refers to the resolution which was passed in the State House of Representatives on this date (1/7/37). The individual named Roscoe in the said conversation, probably refers to Rosco Johnson who is reported to be part owner of the Southern Club.

Respectfully submitted,

John L. Madale, Special Agent.
9:49 A.M. April 11

Jake: How do you feel?

Mayor: I just had been talking with Jim Campbell - did you read the morning paper where they intend to introduce a resolution providing for a committee to investigate them there?

Jake: Yeah, I read it.

Mayor: Now hear what I thought - Jim Campbell is unusually close to the Speaker and is the kind of fellow that can get conciliated. We can sand Jim up there ahead of time, and he can go around to his friends and talk with them about this thing. Now he claims it will cost about $150.00 to move them with his family and stay there for three or four days until the Assembly opens. Jells says that he can devote his entire time in contacting his friends. What do you think?
Jaco: I think it will be a good investment.
Mayor: Yeah, I think so too. I'll try and get him to go over there this afternoon.
Jaco: I feel that the sooner the better, the better it will be for me.
Mayor: Yeah, that's right.
Jaco: I'll call him now, and we can talk this thing over. Can you get away?
Mayor: Well, I'm working on some insurance stuff, but I can let Mr. Jones take care of that till 3 o'clock.
Mayor: All right, I'll see you then.

Note: The individual, Jim Campbell, mentioned above, is undoubtedly James P. Campbell, State Representative of Sand County, Ark.

Telephone 5-2115 is unpublished. It was activated on 1/4/37 through joining 74 petitioner calls to that number, that the same is assigned to W. S. Jacobs.
MEMORANDUM FOR INSPECTOR F. J. CONNELLY

Re: Brekrid.

There are attached hereto the logs for January 11, 1937 covering the taps on telephones listed to the Chief of Police, City Jailor, and Mayor's Office, all located in the City Hall at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

The conversations over the Mayor's phone recorded at 8:02 A.M. and 9:06 A.M. pertain to the resolution providing for an appropriation of $7500.00 and a committee of five to investigate the conditions generally at Hot Springs, Arkansas, which resolution was drawn up by Scott Wood who collaborated with Rev. Lee Nichols and Joe Denny on it, and which will be introduced by Rev. Nichols.

Joe Schneider mentioned in the above conversation is a close personal friend of the Mayor, and he was present with his wife at the Mayor's New Year's Eve Party xxx at the Club Belvedere. It is not known what his connection is in the political circle at Little Rock, Arkansas. The conversation at 9:22 A.M. between Schneider and the Mayor indicates the attitude of the new Governor, C. L. Bailey, of the conditions at Hot Springs.

In that conversation at 11:50 A.M. between the Mayor and Charles Cella, owner of the Oaklawn Race Track, it appears that Cella is somewhat gripped xxx xxxxxx with the action taken by the merchants in town collectively.

The calls recorded at 7:20 P.M. and 7:35 P.M. disclose that the discharged police officers are having a conference at Arch Cooper's residence.

Respectfully submitted,

John L. Medals,
Special Agent.

Mayor: Joe, this is Lee. Have you heard anything?
Schmidt: Well, I talked with Carl yesterday about that. I don't think he has a personal interest but he says he doesn't want me to go pecking around.

Mayor: How about lining up your contacts to work on it.
Schmidt: All right, but he said that those things will have to be settled with Dover or later. He also said those indictments should have charged murder if it was murder, but I told him that that was just the view of an old prosecutor.

Mayor: Well, Roy told me if this fellow wasn't personally interested that everything would be all right.

Simp's Carl told me he didn't order it. I talked to him for about 30 minutes. If you have any other contacts send them over to talk with him because I think that best.

Operator completed call to Cella at St. Louis, Missouri.

Mayor: Have you heard that fertilizer yet?
Cella: They're still on it.

Mayor: How are you, Leo?
Cella: I've been in that bed for the last three days - looks like the flu.

Mayor: Say, Charlie - what are we going to do about those croissants at the track this year?

Cella: Joe (Martin) will handle that when he gets up.

Mayor: Well, I've heard the proposition. Joe gave it to Lloyd (retiring Sheriff) last year. Now he might feel that the time is ripe again this year - Joe let him have it every year since 1924. Huh.

Lloyd and I were, and I thought that if Joe is going to deal these things out, I'd like to participate in that.

Cella: Say Leo, we got to watch our step down there.
Cella: My problem (financial) last year was $18,000 - that's too damn high. I can't make any money that way. If they're going to put any burden on me, I'm not going to turn down these anyone.

Mayor: What's the trouble?

Cella: Just this - the business men are shipping out on me.

Mayor: I haven't heard anything like that down here.

Cella: Well, I got a letter from Higgs the other day saying that effect. I tell you, Leo - I came to the conclusion that if they don't do me right down there, I'll tell the whole bunch of them to go to hell.

Mayor: Well, now this year, all right, but if things don't change, I won't have anything to do with you fellows next year.

Mayor: I think it will work out all right. All right.

Cella: I've got an offer to rent out the track there in Chicago. I'm considering that proposition right now, and I came to the conclusion that I can make a damn sight more money that way.
Mayor: What did that letter say and who was it from?

Celler: I think Higgins down there wrote it. He said they had a meeting and all kinds of other crap. I tell you, Ted, I'm not going to stand for any phony around here.

Mayor: I've seen and talked with Higgins about every day in the past two weeks, and he never said anything to me about having a meeting on this thing.

Celler: You know they need to give from $3,000 to $4,000, and they now decided to cut that out. I'd like it come down there and tell those guys were to get off. I would tell the Governor too in the same tone of voice.

Mayor: Are you talking about that letter from Cagart (?) -

Celler: Yeah.

Mayor: That was just a passing shot. I don't think there is anything to that.

Celler: You know Leo - I like Hot Springs and all that, and I'd like to be down there.
Cellar: but if they are going to make me come, I'll tell them all to go to hell.

Lee: Can you send me a copy of that letter?

Cellar: Yes, I'll send you a copy to-day. Lee, do you think it would do any good if I came down there and talked with them?

Lee: No, I don't. I'd let me talk with Higgins about this, and I am sure every thing can be straightened out. It's funny things, that I haven't heard about this matter up until this time. O.K. Charlie, you send me a copy of that letter. I'll see what I can do.

Cellar: All right, I'll call you and see what it is. I'll also talk to him about that other matter you mentioned.

Lee: Goodbye, Charlie.

Note: Charles Celler is reported to be the owner of the Oaklawn Race Track in Hot Springs. Higgins probably is identical with John B. Higgins, president of the Arkansas Racing and Betting Co.

MEMORANDUM FOR INSPECTOR E. J. CONSELYEA

Res: Brakid.

There are attached hereto the logs for January 11, 1937 covering the taps on telephones listed to the Chief of Police, City Jailor, and Mayor's Office, all located in the City Hall at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

TRANSMITTED:

The call recorded at 1:41 P.M., between "Dutch" Akers and Dan Harty indicates that Harty is a professional bondbreaker in league with the Police Department and Prosecutor's Office. The background of this particular case is reflected in a conversation made the previous evening around 10:45 P.M. between Maxx Houston Emory and the Sheriff from Iowa who came to Hot Spring in the hopes of extradicting this woman whose name is Reesie.

Referring to that call at 6:50 A.M. over the Mayor's phone between Dick Ryan and Mayor McCloughlin, it is believed that they were talking about the attorney's fees in the litigation of Radio Station KTHS. The Mayor and Ryan represent the Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce in this case. Bruce Wallace, mentioned therein, is Vice-Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce and the Kemp mentioned, is S. A. Kemp, Pateante of Hot Spings and Iowa Chairman of the Board, Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce.

In that conversation between the Mayor and Clyde Warming at 4:14 A.M. it is believed that they were referring to the resolution just passed providing for a committee to investigate the unlawful conditions in Hot Springs.
This fellow, Nichols, is one of the authors of the resolution. It is not known at this end just who "Guy" is, but apparently he is some person that the faction down here is trying to reach to help pour cold water on this resolution.
Hollingsworth's complete name is Carroll Hollingsworth, and recent telephone conversations have indicated that perhaps he is on the local administration's payroll, employed to do his part in discouraging the passage of the resolution above mentioned. It is probable that Carroll Hollingsworth is a State Representative; however, this was not definitely determined over the taps. Recent conversations likewise have indicated that Scott Wood is the real author of the said resolution.

Note the conversation at 10:54 A.M. between Mayor McCloughlin and one EARL who is believed to be Earl Pitt, Circuit Judge.

Respectfully submitted,

John L. Kadala,
Special Agent.

Jim: Do you have time?
Abner: Hello.

Jim: Did you see that fortune teller yet?

Abner: No, I haven't had time yet —
what's the trouble up there?

Jim: This boy told me that a fellow

Jim: His face in the face, and his, and then reflection in the mind — that he wanted him to tell his fortune. He told him something about being mixed up in a murder, which made him

Jim: All right.
Ray Erney jumped up and put on his coat, ran out to his car. Another fellow apparently was lying down in the back seat, and this fellow saw his head when he raised it.

When: What happened to the boy who had his fortune told?

Ray Erney: He jumped in the car and drove off in it.

Abner: Where is this fortune teller located?

Ray Erney: (Described location of her trailer)

When: O.K. Ill go out and see her.

1:51 P.M. Incirrini, Ohio 3 ½ M.

Ray Erney: Have you got that girl over there?

Abner: Yes.

Akers: This is Herbert Akers at Hot Springs. Have you got a batch on your records for the last 24 hours?

Little: No, not a thing.

Akers: Well, we had a car to show up here all muddy. It was a big sedan and the driver had blood on him. He had some sort of package wrapped up in the back seat.
He went to a fortune teller here and the fortune teller read the cards and when they turned up black and she told him there was trouble ahead he ran out and away.

MC Little: That looks funny. Do you know any thing about the fortune teller?

Alois: No - she just came to town. What happened to that Mann Act Case?

Little: He's going to the Grand Jury.

Alois: All they going before the Commissioners.

Little: Apparently not. You know about that fellow shipping bond in Memphis, don't you?

Alois: Yes, I just got his record. What has Damron done with his car case.

Little: Damron's been sick and just came back today. I'll ask him about it.
(Talk about grade)

Alice: We had another funny looking case down here. A man and woman rented an apartment and paid rent up thru Thursday and last night they skipped out in a hurry.

Lilet: That does look funny.

Alice: They didn't leave anything. I haven't seen sand yet.

Lilet: Going out this afternoon.

9th Oct.

Mayor called Grady Manning at Little Rock.

Manning = Hello.

Mayor = This is Lee. What's going on over there? Is it raining?

Manning = Yes, it is.

Mayor = Who ordered that?

Manning = I don't know. We have a big crowd, but the weather will be bad for the parade. Everything went off OK. I saw Big Yeg yesterday and N'Collo was there. He said it wouldn't be brought up for several days and he assured me he would see me before then.

Mayor = What about this fellow Allingworth?

Manning = He isn't in the way, I don't believe.
over here mingling around will everyone. I don't mean his trying to do anything but he's here with and about everybody. I'll keep in touch with you and let you know if I see the red flag coming up.
Mayor=All right.

9:37  Jen + 6:48  John
Miss Marcus - Mayor's Office
Mayor = Is Les there?
Mayor = Hello -
Mayor = Les will need six new ballet shoes.
Mayor = Well, you'd better have them made.
Man = OK, I wanted to get your ok.

9:45  Jen
Miss Marcus - Mayor's Office
Miss Lane - Is the Mayor in?
Mayor = Hello -
Miss Lane = Mr. McLaughlin, this is

Mrs. Lane at the Lane Apartments. Here are a bunch of stray dogs in the neighborhood that make a lot of noise and disturb my guests. Can anything be done about them.

Mayor: Well, the only thing is to find out who the owners are and swear out a warrant for maintaining disturbance.

Mrs. Lane: All right, thanks.

9:45 Out
Judge Legerwood called at 3601 and talked to Miles about going bird hunting.

10:02 In
Judge Legerwood ran to the Mayor's office.
Woman: Is Judge Legerwood there?
Legerwood: Hello.
Woman: This is Sally. Do you have a phone at the Como Hotel?
Legerwood: Just call the hotel and ask for room 420.
